Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
Middle East Media and Research Institute, Inc.

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Middle East Media and Research Institute, Inc., (a District of Columbia nonprofit corporation), which comprise the statement of financial position as of June 30, 2014, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the organization's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the organization's internal control. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Opinion

In my opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Middle East Media and Research Institute, Inc. as of June 30, 2014, and changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

JUNE 30, 2014

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ORGANIZATION:

Organization:

The Middle East Media and Research Institute, Inc. (the "Institute"), a non-profit organization based in Washington, DC, was organized to serve as a clearinghouse for information regarding news and other cultural media in and on the subject of the Middle East.

Contributions:

Contributions are recognized as revenues upon receipt of unconditional promises to give.

Gifts of cash and other assets are reported as restricted support if they are received with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated assets. When a donor restriction expires, i.e., when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Cash equivalents:

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Institute considers all highly liquid debt instruments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Property and equipment:

Purchased or constructed property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided by the straight-line and accelerated methods over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Income taxes:

The Institute is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and therefore has made no provision for federal income taxes in the accompanying financial statements. In addition, the organization has been determined by the Internal Revenue Service not to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of Section 509 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code. There was no unrelated business income for 2014.

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ORGANIZATION (CONTINUED):

The Institute is not subject to income taxes in accordance with the Income Taxes topic of FASB ASC (formerly FIN 48). The Income Taxes topic of FASB ASC 740-10 clarifies the accounting for income taxes, by prescribing a minimum recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. It also provides guidance on derecognition, measurement and classification of amounts relating to uncertain tax positions, accounting for and disclosure of interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosures and transition relating to the adoption of the new accounting standards. The Company adopted FASB ASC 740-10 as of July 1, 2009, as required, and determined that its adoption did not have a material impact on the Institute's financial position and results of operations.

Management has evaluated significant tax positions of its consolidated for-profit subsidiaries against the criteria established by professional standards and believes there are no such tax positions requiring accounting recognition in the financial statements. Management does not believe its evaluation of tax positions will significantly change within twelve months of June 30, 2014. Any changes in tax positions will be recorded when the ultimate outcome becomes known. The Institute's income tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities generally for the years ended June 30, 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

5. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The Institute receives translation, monitoring and other services from an affiliated organization which, in turn compensates the president of the Institute. The amount paid to the affiliate, net of the compensation to the president, was $2,491,126 during the year ended June 30, 2014.

6. RETIREMENT PLAN

Effective January 1, 2005, the Institute adopted a 401(k) plan whereby all employees may participate and elect to defer part of their income. Employees who have completed two years of service are eligible to participate in employer contributions and are immediately vested in those contributions. Employer contributions are discretionary and are determined annually. For the year ended June 30, 2014, employer contributions amounted to $25,741.

7. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Subsequent Events Topic 855 of FASB ASC establishes general standards of accounting for and disclosures of events that occur after the balance sheet date but before financial statements are issued or are available to be issued. The FASB ASC Subsequent Events topic defines the period after the balance sheet date during which management shall evaluate events or transactions that may occur for potential recognition or disclosure, the circumstances under which an organization shall recognize events occurring after the balance sheet date and the disclosures that an organization shall make about those events or transactions. The FASB ASC Subsequent Events Topic defines two types of subsequent events. The first type consists of events or transactions that provide additional evidence about conditions that existed at the date of the balance sheet, including the estimates inherent in the process of preparing financial statements. The second consists of events or transactions that did not exist at the balance sheet date but arose after that date but before the financial statements were issued or available to be issued.

Management evaluated all events and transactions that occurred after June 30, 2014 through October 29, 2014, the date these financial statements were available to be issued.

8. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE OPTIONS

Effective July 1, 2009 the Institute has adopted the Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of FASB ASC (formerly SFAS No. 157). The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic of FASB ASC defines fair value, establishes a consistent framework for measuring fair value in accordance with GAAP, and expands disclosure requirements about fair value measurements. The Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures Topic also requires that the valuation techniques used to measure fair value maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs in accordance with the following fair value: quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements), significant other observable inputs (Level 2 measurements), and significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The fair value measurement is assigned an overall input level based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety. Investments recorded in the statement of financial position are categorized based on the inputs to valuation techniques of quoted prices in active markets.

The option provisions of the Financial Instruments Topic of FASB ASC (formerly SFAS No. 159), became effective beginning July 1, 2008. These optional provisions permit the Corporation to report most financial assets and liabilities at fair value on an instrument-by-instrument basis, with changes in fair value reported in the earnings. The Corporation elected not to measure at fair value the Corporation's financial assets and liabilities under the optional provisions of the Financial Instruments Topic of FASB ASC.

	Assets/ Liabilities Measured At Fair Value	Quoted Prices in Active Markets for Identical Assets (Level 1)	Significant Other Observable Inputs (Level 2)	Significant Unobservable Inputs (Level 3)
Marketable Securities	$ 256	$ 256	$ -	$ -
Deposits	15,028	15,028	-	-
